Italy Determined on War, Speeds More Troops

CAMPAIGN IN ETHIOPIA TO GO THROUGH

French Attitude Won't Alter Plans, Report; 5900 Leave Naples

LONDON RUSHES MEN

Three More Battalions Sent to Malta; Haile Happy at Outlook

ROME, Sept. 12. (AP)—Well-informed sources said today that Italy will go ahead with her Ethiopian campaign no matter what attitude France may adopt. Although much anxiety was expressed on the eve of the projected speech by Premier Laval of France in the League of Nations, these sources said Italy was determined not to swerve from a war regarded as inevitable.

It was stated Italy would not swerve even though France returned to a basis of cooperation with Great Britain outlined last Feb. 3 at London (when the British and French met "to promote the peace of the world by closer European cooperation in a spirit of most friendly confidence, and to remove those tendencies which, if unchecked, are calculated to lead to a race in armaments and an increase in the dangers of war.")

Italian officials dispatched a new mass of troops for East Africa today.

The great trans-Atlantic liner Saturnia and the transport Cesare Battisti took aboard, in round numbers, 5900 troops and officers for an immediate departure from Naples.

LAURA RACING EAST
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—Frank Speakman, Albuquerque airport manager, said he saw a plane he thought to be that of Laura Ingalls pass over this city headed east at 10:40 a. m. (Mountain standard time). Miss Ingalls is seeking a new west-to-east non-stop flight record.

RICHES TO ANAHEIM WOMAN
Race Ticket Worth $10,000

Mrs. Grace Witherill, who lives at Palm and Cerritos avenues in Anaheim, will be $10,000 richer soon, all because her husband sold two books of sweepstakes tickets on the St. Leger racing classic yesterday in Doncaster, Eng. Mr. Witherill obtained two free tickets for his effort and gave the winning duet to his wife. It was reported. Her ticket was on "Buckleigh," which ran third in the race, giving the holder about $10,000 in prize money.

Howard Hughes Makes Test of Plane's Speed Near Here Late Today

Howard Hughes, who rocketed to prominence several years ago when he produced the sensational air picture, "Hell's Angels," was scheduled to give Santa Ana another aviation thrill this afternoon when he was to attempt to shatter the world's speed record for land airplanes.

Sitting in the cockpit of his $120,000 mystery plane, the millionaire oil man was to send his ship into the air south of this city and shoot over a mile long speed course east of the Eddie Martin airport. He is seeking the mark of 314 miles per hour, held by a French flyer.

N. Dietrich, manager for Mr. Hughes, told the Associated Press the test will be made some time between 4 and 6 p. m. The mystery ship was built secretly at a Burbank airport, the work covering two years.

At the Irvine company, on whose land the test was being made, it was learned that apparatus has been set up to clock the speed of the plane. The course is located where the late Dr. A. A. Michelson several years ago used a mile-long tube in making tests on the speed of light.

The low wing monoplane with long silver body and stubby wings is an all-metal ship larger than most racing planes. It has a new type wing curve, and is said to be capable of 365 miles an hour.

Mr. Wilson, head of the Oceanic Salvaging Company of Delaware, proposes to lease a large block of land at the eastern limits of Huntington Beach and 3500 feet of ocean front for his project, it was reported. Plans for salvaging at least four sunken ships on the Pacific coast are included in the company's program, it was reported. Mr. Wilson is said to have a contract with the Japanese government for all salvaged material he can obtain.

He is reported planning to meet with the county supervisors Tuesday to discuss ocean-front leases between the two beaches for the project.

NO VERDICT IN BRUNO APPEAL

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 12. (AP)—Chancellor Luther A. Campbell said today the court of errors and appeals would not rule today on the Bruno Richard Hauptmann case.

The chancellor said Hauptmann's appeal from his conviction as the kidnaper-murderer of the Lindbergh baby had not yet been considered in the court's conference, and he did not know whether it would be discussed later today during the opening conference session of the court's fall term. The chancellor is the senior officer of the court.

RAISE IN CRUDE PRICES SOUGHT

LONG BEACH, Sept. 12. (AP)—Members of the oil workers union in California today sought a restoration of a $1 a barrel crude price as a scale to guarantee wage levels which existed under the NRA period.

With the abandonment of the NRA code succeeding production curtailment agencies, price structures have dropped.

Nazi headquarters at Nurnberg declined to indicate what Hitler's declaration would be.

'DEATH DRAW' FOR LONG CHARGED

Federal Probe Demanded as Aid Says Assassin Was Picked by Lot

THOUSANDS AT BIER

Talmadge's Name Hinted as New Candidate for 'Share Wealth' Clubs

(Copyright, 1935, by Associated Press) BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 12. (AP)—Leaders of the thousands who loved Huey Long proceeded today to bury the slain senator and determine whether he had been assassinated as the result of a conspiracy.

The Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, chosen to deliver the funeral oration, first called for a congressional investigation. He said last night that he believed disclosure of the facts behind the killing would "shake the nation."

Long's secretary, Earl Christenberry, expressed conviction that the senator's assassin, Dr. Carl A. Weiss, Jr., had been chosen by lot. "I believe they drew straws and Weiss lost," he said.

The district attorney promised a thorough investigation. Even as tributes were paid the slain leader, Gov. Eugene Talmadge of Georgia was injected into the political picture as a possible successor to the senator as presidential candidate of the "Share-Our-Wealth" clubs.

The Georgia governor, at Chattanooga, Tenn., said while this was the first he had heard of the report he would "rather not make any comment at this time."

Draw Battle Lines
While two gravediggers spaded into the moist soil of a sunken garden adjoining the skyscraper capitol that Long built, while thousands filed past his bier in the rotunda of that capitol and more thousands swarmed into Baton Rouge for the funeral, friends and foes of the "dictator" drew up their lines to battle for control of the state.

Gov. Oscar K. Allen as titular head of the Long machine is pledged to carry on the doctrines of the dictator; his enemies have declared they will fight.

The Rev. Mr. Smith, former Share-Our-Wealth organizer and national organizer of Senator Long's Share-Our-Wealth clubs, announced he had called on Joseph W. Byrnes, speaker of the national house of representatives, to order the congressional inquiry.

"I wired the speaker," he said, "that, since he had appointed a committee to investigate Senator Huey P. Long's activities in Louisiana, he should appoint one to investigate his assassination."

Byrnes recently designated a committee with authority to inquire into Louisiana politics to determine whether a "Republican form of government" was not destroyed by Senator Long's dominance and legislation.

Simple was the ritual arranged for one of the most striking figures in Southern politics.

Dickie Dare is back! Journal readers who have missed the "Adventures of Dickie Dare" for the past three days will welcome this news. Because mats of the popular comic were delayed in transit to The Journal followers of Dickie and his hero-pal, Dan Flynn, left them Saturday just as they found beautiful Carol Barrington a prisoner in the mystic temple of Doctor Sting.

Today, taking off where the gap occurred Saturday, Dickie, Dan and Tubby, their ever-loyal companion, meet the "Tiger Princess."

Would You Marry on $75 Monthly? Banker Says No

Should a man marry on $75 a month? No, say the economists. Yes, say some of those who have. How? asks a third group. The Journal would like to know, too. So it assigned Virginia Smith, Journal staff writer, to gather and set down varying opinions of Santa Anans. They will be presented in a series of articles of which this is the first.

By VIRGINIA SMITH

Love and the groceryman stand on either side of modern youth, more foreboding than his fathers and grandfathers ever found them. Both of them just dare him to get married on his $75 a month.

"Never prolong an engagement longer than a year," says the sociologist, the psychologist, and the scientist.

"Have at least six months' salary in the bank after all wedding expenses and furniture are paid for, before starting a family," is the warning of the economist.

"Two can live as cheaply as one" has long been the romanticists' wall. The business man looks grave, however, as he reminds youth that love flies out of the window as the unpaid bills slip under the door.

Inexperienced young men are expected to start in a business at $18 or $20 a week, college education or not. If a young chap has spent five or six years working his way through the university, he finds himself at the ripe old age of 24 or 25, thinking of taking on a family, with no extravagant means of support for himself, let alone a wife.

Marriages in the bottom of the depression, 1932, dropped to 7.87 per cent of the total population, the lowest of a compilation made from 1889. The young man who (Continued on Page 2, Column 6)

BLOCK WATER COMPROMISE

Exportation to Outside Areas Is Opposed by District Directors

The board of directors of the Orange county water district yesterday said they will make no compromise with areas outside the district which use water taken from inside the district. One purpose for which the district was formed was to prevent export of water.

A motion made by Director William Wallop, Anaheim, and adopted by the board, expressed this position.

At the board's request, County Surveyor W. K. Hillyard submitted a written report listing 19 areas outside the district which assertedly are using water from inside the district. In this list is a region south of Laguna Beach which is mostly outside the district, but which is receiving water from Laguna Beach, which is inside the district.

No Court Action
The board already has officially notified this area that it will not countenance such export. No court action has been taken, however. Elmer Crawford, representing this area, told the board yesterday at its Garden Grove meeting that this region is taking steps as rapidly as possible to secure water from another source.

Another area listed by Mr. Hillyard includes property on the Irvine ranch north of Laguna Beach. Director Roy Browning said, however, that while this area is outside the county water district, it is part of a region for which the Irvine company was granted use of 3000 acre-feet per year by a court decree several years ago, in which water rights were established.

Cites Other Cases
Mr. Hillyard's area said that the city of Fullerton is not in the district but gets domestic water from wells in Anaheim. The report said that Anaheim, while excepted from the county water district, is within the exterior boundaries of the district.

The Newport Harbor High school, outside the district, gets water from Newport Beach, which is in the district, said the report. The report was referred to the legal committee, which will investigate each of the 19 instances and recommend action at the next meeting.

FARM PARTY FOLLOWED BY DEATH

Millionaire Son of Oil King Held; Evelyn Hoey Is Victim in Tragedy

BROADWAY STAR

Henry H. Rogers, Jr., Is Jailed; Actress Famed in New York, Paris

(Copyright, 1935, by Associated Press) DOWNTOWN, Pa., Sept. 12. Evelyn Hoey, blonde torch singer of Broadway and Paris, was found shot to death early today at the farm home of 29-year-old Henry H. Rogers, Jr., son of the late Standard Oil multi-millionaire.

Rogers was brought here on a technical charge of suspicion of murder. Police said he had been drinking and that the tragedy followed a party at the farm house.

Chief County Detective Francis Grubb announced Rogers would not be released on bail, although District Attorney William Parke had announced earlier Rogers would be permitted to post $1000 bond.

Grubb made the announcement after a conference with Parke, which followed by about an hour the district attorney's statement that Rogers and James Kelly, motion picture cameraman, arrested with Rogers, would be admitted to $1000 bail each.

Parke had said the death of the musical comedy star, "looks so very much like suicide that we feel justified in accepting bail under the circumstances."

Grubb declared, however, that "we are not going to release these two men to bail."

"We are going to hold them without bail under the inquest, a week from tonight. We may or may not question them again later today."

SHOOTING SCRAPE IN MEXICO CITY BRINGS DEATH TO TWO OFFICIALS

OTHERS HURT
LAST NIGHT
IN BATTLEMinority Plot Against Administration Held Responsible

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 12. (AP)—A second national deputy died today of wounds received in a shooting affray in the chamber of deputies last night.

The second to die was Deputy Luis Mendez. Two other deputies are suffering from wounds.

The gun battle resulted in charges that minority members plotted difficulties for the administration.

Luis Mora Tovar, president of the majority, left wing group of the chamber, told President Lazaro Cardenas administration opponents planned and executed the shooting.

Mora Tovar said minority members had been meeting secretly for some time, planning to use violent means to divide the legislative body.

He asserted hired gunmen took part in the exchange of shots late last night which caused the death of Deputy Manuel Martinez Valdez, majority member from Jalisco, and the wounding of Mendez, Roman Campos Viveros and Mariano M. Vertiz.

Members of the minority group denied they had arranged the shooting. They also denied they were supporters of General Plutarco Elias Calles, former president now living in the Hawaiian Islands.

Observers said the shooting grew out of a heated debate between members of the majority and the minority over internal regulations of the chamber.

AGED WOMAN, IN EJECTION
TRIAL, FAINTS IN COURT

Called to testify in a suit seeking to eject her from her home in Fullerton, Miss Hattie Billman, 71, created a sensation in department 3, superior court, this morning when she fainted and fell back into her chair.

Miss Billman was named defendant in the action, which was started by William J. Gilmore and his wife, Mrs. Edith Gilmore, who allege that the aged woman has unlawfully refused to give them

MORE ABOUT LONG

(Continued from Page One) wrote; the eulogy and sermon by the Rev. Mr. Smith, and the reading of Scripture; that was all.

The sorrowing and the curious meanwhile streamed by the hundreds past the huge bronze casket, magnificent in construction, in the capitol. Dressed in evening clothes, Senator Long lay on a couch within the coffin.

Floral wreaths were banked higher and higher as the throng passed.

District Attorney John Fred Odom of East Baton Rouge parish announced that the three-posted inquest into the death of Dr. Weiss, shot by Senator Long's bodyguards, would be resumed Monday at 10 a. m. It has repeatedly been continued because the bodyguards failed to appear when summoned.

DENIED DAMAGES
J. W. Shields, Santa Ana painter, was denied damages for injuries sustained in an automobile accident July 13, 1934, in a verdict returned last night by a jury in department 3, superior court. Mr. Shields had sued the Quaker Oats company and E. P. Stewart for damages totalling $6800, alleging that an automobile, owned by the company and driven by Mr. Stewart, crashed into his car.

CONTRACTOR JAILED
J. H. Gamble, 55, of 749 Manzanita drive, Laguna Beach, was brought to the county jail this morning and booked on charges of violating the state contractor's license laws. He was arraigned today in the Laguna Beach justice court, and Justice of the Peace C. Cravath set September 18, at 10 a. m., as the time for trial. Bail was fixed at $250.

When the party of police officials arrived at the Rogers place they found Rogers and Kelly in little condition for questioning, due, the chief said, to intoxication.

Detective Grubb remarked later that the events preceding the tragedy apparently were "just another party."

All Fully Clothed
All the persons at the farm were fully clothed.

Chief Glisson said he was told that Rogers, an hour before the shooting, had ripped the telephone from the wall. The fact that it was disconnected delayed notification of authorities about the tragedy, he said.

Had Been Drinking
"Rogers had been drinking," said he chauffeur, "and was hard to understand. He said he heard the shot, ran upstairs, saw the girl's body and then came downstairs to call for help. Kelly said the same thing. Kelly added that he and Rogers were talking when the shot occurred."

Miss Hoey was born Dec. 15, 1910, in Minneapolis. She was diminutive, blue eyed, and had honey colored hair. In the summer of 1928 she played in Paris, and she had the feminine lead in the London production of "Good News." Her earlier experience included vaudeville appearances and a road tour with the "Greenwich Village Follies."

Rogers has been in and out of public prints for many years, both by reason of the great wealth of his father, who died recently, and because of his own adventurous bent.

CITRUS PEST
INTERCEPTED
AT BLYTHE

A threatened invasion of Orange county citrus orchards by the dreaded Mexican fruit fly has been blocked back, it became known here today.

This pest, rated in farm circles as public enemy No. 2, was intercepted in tourist baggage at Blythe, in Riverside county, near the California-Arizona border, according to information reaching here today.

Agricultural Commissioner D. W. Tubbs said that in his opinion, the Mexican fruit fly is a more serious pest than the Mediterranean fruit fly which a few years ago devastated Florida citrus orchards.

Larvae of the fly were found by H. S. Greninger, senior border quarantine inspector of the California department of agriculture, in a Mexican orange brought into the state by tourists from Georgia. If the car had not been stopped and a careful search made, the orange in which five maggots were found would have been taken into the state and might have started an infestation that would have done untold damage to the citrus and deciduous industry of the state, it was explained by A. C. Fleury, chief of the state bureau of plant quarantine.

Argument in Night
Rogers said there was an argument during the night and that the girl, who won Broadway prominence playing the lead in "Yours Truly" opposite Leon Errol, went upstairs alone.

"We heard a shot," Rogers said, "and when we ran upstairs we found her lying on the floor."

A single bullet had entered the left side of the 25-year-old girl's head, passed completely through and embedded itself in the wall.

Blood Covered Gun
At her feet police found a .45 caliber, pearl handled pistol. On the bed was an automatic covered with blood, and in a corner of the room was a saved-off shotgun.

Rogers, whose 29 years have been packed with adventure seeking, was taken to the Chester county prison. Chief of Police Chester Glisson and Detective Grubb were the officers who said Rogers had been drinking.

Word of the Minneapolis-born actress' death came from Francis Catano, Rogers' chauffeur. He drove to nearby Hawthorne early today and said a suicide had taken place at the Indian Run farm of Rogers.

Dr. Refuses Trip
Catano first told his story to Dr. Thomas Richmond, and he declined to make the journey to the farm when his wife objected on the grounds that she disliked the reputation of the place.

It was then that Catano came here and notified Chief Glisson. While the police chief was awaiting the arrival of Deputy Coroner Harvey Cox, Rogers' attorney, Joseph Clark, rushed into the office and also reported a suicide at the farm.

'TIDE HAS TURNED'
SAYS SELASSIE
ADDIS ABABA, Sept. 12. (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie today expressed his profound gratitude for the British stand at Geneva backing the League of Nations covenant and opposing aggression.

"The tide seems to have turned," said the emperor and smiled. "We face the future with renewed confidence."

"God, justice, and the great powers appear to be on our side. Our prayers for peace may yet be answered."

"We will not be the first to draw blood, but if war must come, we are prepared. We will yield nothing further in the way of economic, political, or territorial concession to Italy. Our delegation at Geneva is so instructed."

SMALLER POWERS BACK ENGLAND'S PEACE STAND

GENEVA, Sept. 12. (AP)—New suggestions said to concern a united front of collective assistance for Ethiopia, were made today by the Italo-Ethiopian sub-committee of the League of Nations.

The committee, composed of Great Britain, France, Spain, Poland and Turkey, was instructed by the league council to attempt to find a solution of the dispute between Italy and Ethiopia.

'Big Five' Meet
Representatives of the "big five" met today and instructed their African experts to examine a new series of suggestions which the committee members were believed to think would serve as a basis for a concrete plan of settlement.

A group of Europe's most powerful small nations came to an unequivocal in the league assembly today against the employment of force as a means of acquiring the territory of others.

Support Covenant
Statesmen of the Netherlands, Belgium and Sweden—the last understood to represent all the Scandinavian countries—pledged their nations' loyal support to the League of Nations covenant, thereby backing the British policy pronounced yesterday by Sir Samuel Hoare, Great Britain's foreign secretary.

WOMAN TELLS OF ATTACK AT TRIAL

Before a jury of seven women and five men, Mrs. Mickey Dean, 30, Santa Ana woman, today told the story of how she was kidnapped from in front of a Westminster cafe early on the morning of June 23, last, taken to a beet field and criminally assaulted by four Mexicans.

She identified Frank Rosa and Faustino Saucida, on trial for the offense, as two of her assailants. The other two men have never been captured.

JAM TO CHEER VETERANS
Local Auxiliary Sends Food

One week from next Sunday there will be a welcome in the hearts of scores of sick war veterans in the U. S. Veterans hospital at San Fernando when Santa Ana's Legion auxiliary takes its annual truck load of jellies and jams to the hospital.

"It is not too much to say that those in the hospital welcome our contribution with tears of joy, because in the past, they have done just that," Mrs. Ralph Hoover said today in announcing the auxiliary's annual jelly, jam and canned fruit drive. The drive will be held on Friday and Saturday of next week.

"The food at the hospital does not include jelly and jam," continued the auxiliary leader, "and nobody knows the intense longing those sick boys have for those very things, reminders of home and the days before illness took them down."

For many years now the auxiliary each year has called on the people of Santa Ana and nearby communities to contribute jelly, jam and canned fruit to the cause. Last year about 1200 glasses were collected. This year, the auxiliary relief committee, headed by Mrs. Frank Corey, hopes to have at least 1500 glasses.

"Those who care to do so," said Mrs. Fannie Reeves, of the committee, "can have their contributions gathered up by the committee, if they will telephone Mrs. Hoover at 5731 or me at 395-R any time between now and Friday of next week. Friday and Saturday we will be at Legion hall on Birch street to receive contributions. The hours will be from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m."

Dr. John Wehrly, president of the Santa Ana chapter, American Red Cross, said that the Red Cross is anxious to make the drive a success, and today he reported to the auxiliary that the Red Cross would send the auxiliary a $10 check, the money to be used to help swell the number of glasses of jelly and jam to be sent to the sick veterans.

BRANCH STORES BACKING CHEST

Branch stores in Santa Ana have set out to raise a quota of $3000 for the Community Chest before the intensive campaign of Oct. 6 to 13. They began their efforts yesterday at a meeting in Community Chest headquarters, 410 North Sycamore street, presided over by Harold S. Wright.

Mr. Wright is divisional manager for the Bay View Hotel. In addressing the group of chain store representatives, Mr. Wright said: "We recognize that there is a vital need these days for providing opportunity for boys and girls and young men and young women to have constructive activities for their leisure hours; that doing so is just good business and the 'chain store organizations' also believe that it is their responsibility to take a definite part in the human and community betterment in the communities in which they operate. Therefore, in Santa Ana, we propose to set an example of good citizenship by raising a substantial proportion of the total budget needed to carry on this worthy work."

Leaders of the branch house organization who met yesterday included R. C. Harness, Carter H. Lane, O. C. Norton, George J. Shanahan, S. C. Russell and A. F. Jones. Other chain leaders present were W. D. Ranney, chairman of the central committee, and Harry L. Hanson, general campaign chairman. The branch house organization includes 63 institutions whose principal offices are in some other city.

FREEMAN WINS IN TALKTEST

Max Freeman won first place in the speaking contest held by Smedley chapter of Toastmasters' International at its meeting held at James cafe last evening.

Discussing "Social Maladjustment," Mr. Freeman cited the fact that more than 50,000 people are maintained in California institutions, and stated that a more careful study of the causes of personal conflict would greatly reduce the number of people committed to these institutions.

Walter Ferris, speaking on "One Thousand Miles per Hour," won second place in the speaking contest with a talk on the speed with which the earth moves through space.

"Alice in Wonderland" was the subject of the impromptu speech by Ralph C. Smedley, founder of the Toastmasters' organization, in which he told of the theories which have been developed as to the existence and nature of a fourth dimension or plane of existence.

W. S. Phelps, who also gave an impromptu speech, talked of "Dredging," which he outlined the construction and operating principles of the dredgers used in Newport bay.

George De Rouilhac acted as toastmaster of the evening, with Arthur Woodworth as general critic. Lee Freeman, Ben Freeman and Gary Freeman, brothers of Max Freeman, and Harry Motley were visitors to the club.

DEATH ACCIDENTAL
A coroner's jury yesterday afternoon rendered a verdict of accidental death in the case of George W. Wallace, 42, Yorba Linda, assistant state forester, who was killed in a traffic accident here early Tuesday. Mr. Wallace was crushed between the rear of a fire truck and a milk truck driven by Ed Cochems, Balboa Island.

PLAN CELEBRATION MARKING COMPLETION OF HARBOR DREDGING

EVENT TO BE STAGED IN NOVEMBER

Committees Meet With Dr. Soiland Saturday to Map Program

NEWPORT BEACH.—Plans for a county-wide event celebrating completion of dredging operations in Newport Harbor were discussed and a meeting called for Saturday night to complete arrangements, at a session of directors of the harbor chamber last night.

Members of the harbor and advertising committees will meet with Dr. Albert Soiland at the Newport Harbor Yacht club Saturday to discuss the celebration. Dr. Soiland was recently placed in charge of the event, which will probably be held in November.

Directors also will ask the state fish and game commission to investigate operations of a large three-masted yacht which members reported is taking large quantities of live bait from local waters for shipment to Honolulu for use in tuna fishing there. The boat is owned by a Los Angeles corporation, they reported.

A report from the harbor committee requesting that federal and county officials be asked to secure approval of additional work to use up funds remaining when the present harbor program is completed, was approved by the group.

Brick Dust

By BRICK GAINES

We've all heard of church bazaars, society bazaars and other such social functions, but didja ever hear of a nudist colony bazaar?

Neither did we, until after a visit to Pete McConville and his Olympic fields nudist colony above Capistrano on the Ortega highway. Then Pete and his assistant, Mikal, told us all about their latest social function.

It was a sort of wind-up to the summer season and aided in ushering in the fall activities. Invitations were sent out to members in many Southland cities, and over 70 were guests for the week-end event.

What we liked best was the "indecent" part of the exhibit. It was a man, fully dressed, even to a fur coat!

A bathing beauty contest prize was won by an ingenious lady who garbed herself in leaves—we could not find out whether or not they have any fig trees at the colony.

They had lots of exhibits, including a "chamber of horrors," a wild man, sideshow, fortune-telling booths and even a man-eating shark, which turned out to be one of the residents making a meal on fish and catchup.

The underground theater, which is built under the mess hall at the colony, and which is a popular spot at all times, was busy throughout the bazaar. Puppet shows and other plays were presented before capacity crowds.

Incidentally, Mikal tells us that his puppets have made a trip to St. Louis and back during the summer. The animated dolls made a big hit there—they're all original, as are the plays in which they act. Mikal makes 'em.

While we were investigating the whys and wherefores of a nudist colony, we asked Pete about a news story recently printed in which some New York authority states that sleeping "in the raw" is becoming popular and is more healthful than the ordinarily accepted method.

He wasn't very enthusiastic about the learned man's statement. He's been sleeping that way for years, and knows hundreds of others who do likewise, so it isn't anything new, at all, he said. However, it is the most healthful way to sleep, he added.

We talked to Pete about the nudist business in general, and he kept right on working on his new home, a small cabin with slab sides and many screens which must allow enough air even for a nudist.

The spring and fall months are best for his colony, he said. In the early and late summer people seem to have more time to spend week-ends at the camp—crowds of 65 and 75 aren't at all unusual, he added. Lots of families spend their vacations at Olympic fields—kids and all.

There's some poison ivy around the camp, but patrons aren't bothered except maybe in the springtime, he said, thus disproving tales and cartoons about the unfailing afternoon breeze and the cool shade of the oak groves. He has his spring water and his outdoor shower baths—if he only had a plunge and a trout stream, we'd be tempted to turn nudist, too!

Pete's still enthusiastic about his location a mile off the Ortega highway. It's real private—trees and brush and mountains all around and a dog to bark if anyone intrudes. He brags about the unfailing afternoon breeze and the cool shade of the oak groves.

There's only one thing—some day it just might snow in them there mountains, and that'd be too much.

PADDLER TO RACE SAIL! Kayak-Boat Event Planned

NEWPORT HARBOR.—Can a "kayaker" paddle faster than a sailboat can sail?

That question has bothered enthusiasts of the harbor district for some time, according to Harry Welch, secretary of the chamber of commerce, so a race has been arranged between pilots of the two different types of craft for Sept. 22 at 2 p. m.

Names of entrants have not been announced, but outstanding navigators for both type of boat will represent their classes, Mr. Welch said today.

In addition, a rough-water swim from the Newport to the Balboa piers will be offered, as well as several regulation kayak events between the two piers, it was announced. Kayak races for both men and women have been arranged, and will take place over a four-mile course between the two piers.

Fire Chief Frank Crocker and Gordon Moseley will be in charge of the swimming events, while "Hook" Beardsley, international star boat champion, and M. S. "Robbie" Robinson will be general chairmen of the day. Other officials will be W. Henry Austin of Santa Barbara and R. A. Marsden of Fullerton, in charge of kayak races and Myron Lehman and Charles Plummer, the sailboat-kayak race.

This Crocheted Medallion is Fascinating Pick-Up Work

PATTERN 5156

Don't long for heirlooms—make them yourself! Just by repeating this simple crocheted square you can make a bedspread that will be a priceless joy to yourself, and the prized possession of your children. The popcorns in this design are worked on a mesh crochet, giving them added contrast as well as speeding up the work a bit. You can make a lovely cushion of it, too, the richness of the design making it especially suited for this.

In pattern 5156 you will find detailed instructions and material requirements for crocheting the medallion and joining it to make a variety of articles.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to Santa Ana Journal Household Arts Department, 117 East Fifth street, Santa Ana, Calif.

Sports oddities: Who says sports writers or their families aren't athletic? Patricia Corinne (Patty) Henry, daughter of the Los Angeles Times' Bill Henry, made papa proud yesterday by winning the national girls' tennis championship at Philadelphia. The gal is only 13 and was seeded fourth in the tourney. Papa Bill is reputedly a good swinger of racquets himself.

Have you ever heard of a cycle like this:

The elimination of Fred Perry from the national men's singles tennis championship at Forest Hills yesterday broke the strange chain of circumstances whereby the winner of the Pacific Southwest championship in Los Angeles annually won the national crown the following season.

All this started in 1927 when William Tilden won the first Pacific Southwest championship and then captured the national in 1928. Henri Cochet, the Frenchman, repeated the performance in 1928-29 with John Hope Doeg, Ellsworth Vines, Jr., and Perry continuing the string unbroken.

If Oscar Echard of the Missions should break a leg tomorrow he would win the national minor league batting crown. His only close competitor, Chester Laabs of Fort Wayne in the Three-I league, is out of the running because his league has ended its season. Oscar, hitting .405 to date probably goes on and wins without the trouble of staying in the games and running the risk of having his average dropped.

The meeting to discuss the world series dates, called for Judge K. M. Landis' office September 17, looks more like a gathering of league managers. Detroit and New York have been called from the American league and St. Louis, Chicago, New York and Pittsburgh from the National circuit.

Fuzz Merritt's Pomona college eleven will average only 160 pounds on the line this year. The Sagehens play Santa Ana's dons here on the night of September 28. Eugene Nixon relinquished his coaching job to Merritt this season.

NO BREATHERS ON DON GRID SKEED

So-called "breathers" will be conspicuous by their absence on Santa Ana Junior college's attractive 11-game football schedule. The Dons will have a long, uphill fight to regain their Southern California association championship surrendered to Riverside last fall. Their opposition, particularly Riverside, Fullerton, San Bernardino and Citrus, appears stronger this term, and it will be an honor to finish anywhere near the top.

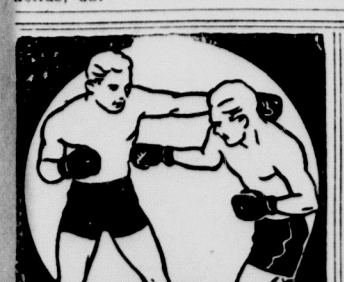

The junior collegians will be introduced through five successful games to be staged at the Municipal Bowl. They open with Pasadena here a week from tomorrow night, tackle Pomona college's varsity the following Friday or Saturday, and entertain the powerful U. S. C. Freshmen here on the night of September 28. Other conference affairs follow with Riverside and Citrus before the Dons hit the road. The rest of the schedule: Oct. 26—Chaffey at Ontario; Nov. 1—At San Bernardino; Nov. 8—C. L. A. Freshmen (non-conference), here; Nov. 15—At Pomona; Nov. 28—Fullerton, here.

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., Sept. 12. HIPPS FAVORED OVER HERRERA TONIGHT

BEACH SQUAD STOPPED BY SANTA ANA

Louie Neva Outpitched as Teammates Lucky to Register Tally

By PAUL WRIGHT

Santa Ana fans felt like wrapping a blue ribbon around the neck of Jimmy Coates today and placing him on exhibit at the San Diego exposition as nighthall's premier chucker.

All this started in 1927 when William Tilden won the first Pacific Southwest championship and then captured the national in 1928. Henri Cochet, the Frenchman, repeated the performance in 1928-29 with John Hope Doeg, Ellsworth Vines, Jr., and Perry continuing the string unbroken.

With the odds stacked heavily against him, Coates pitched shut-out ball for eight frames to enable Irishman Tom Denney's inspired Stars to upset Huntington Beach's threatening Oilers, 4-1, before approximately 2000 fans at the Municipal bowl last night.

Three to Two

Jolly Joe Rodgers' Oilers, who many believed had the series sewed up tighter than a Pullman window, now maintain only a 3 to 2 edge in the National league play-offs. They won the first two games, 7-1 and 9-5; lost the third, 5-2, and won the fourth in 13 innings, 3-2, before taking it on the chin last night.

Back in stride, the Stars will have an excellent opportunity to win the 1933 crown if they deadlock the series in the sixth game at Huntington Beach tomorrow night, because the seventh and deciding struggle would be brought to the Municipal bowl. President Walter Wentz has ruled that no flip of the coin will be necessary to designate the scene of the odd game, since it was agreed in an early commission meeting to alternate the contests.

Louie Neva, the rugged Russian, was outpitched for the third successive time by Coates, who fared better in the pinches. They broke even on strike-outs with eight. Coates issued seven hits to Neva's nine.

Denney Comes Through

Sensational hitting by Manager Denney, who gathered four singles for a perfect evening, aided the Santa Ana cause.

The leader of the Stars led off with a liner that bounced off third baseman Bill McKinley's glove for a single in the first. A batted ball and Francis Conrad's grounder planted him on third, and Merle Urbine scored him on a blistering single to left-center.

Santa Ana organized a three-run spurge in the third, Denney and Conrad touching off the fireworks with singles. Catcher Al Reboin came through with a sharp double down the third-base line to bring in Denney, and Conrad hurried home on Leavitt Daley's grounder to short.

Huntington Beach was lucky to score at all. George Murray rapped a neat single to right in the fourth. Rodgers followed with a grounder that bounced by First baseman Urbine. Murray rounded third on the play, and made a slide into the plate to beat a peg by Urbine, who had juggled Daley's throw-in from rightfield.

Other Opportunities

The Stars advanced men as far as third in two other innings—the fifth and sixth. Orv Schuchardt's single, Charley Zany's walk and two passed balls placed Huntington Beach in scoring position in the second, but Coates retaliated by fanning Lower and Smith. Smith was stranded at second after knocking a two-bagger in the seventh. Only one other Oiler reached as far as second—Paul Neva, who singled and gained an extra base on a passed ball in the ninth.

Identical lineups will take the field at Huntington Beach tomorrow night.

A personal appeal was made to landlords by the mayor of Fayetteville, N. C., not to evict persons who were unable to pay rent because of economic conditions.

SAINTS, DONS SCRIMMAGE TOMORROW

DON KENNEDY CHECKS OUT PREP SUIT

Joe Herbert Impresses Cook; College Turnout Increased to 48

Dummy scrimmage, and perhaps a little of the genuine kind, will be held between Bill Foote's Saints of the high school and Bill Cook's Dons of the junior college on Poly field at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Santa Ana's two football contingents are wasting no time in grooming themselves for their non-conference engagements next week. The Saints face Orange's Panthers here Friday afternoon, and the Dons go into the Municipal bowl that night to battle Pasadena's Bulldogs, three-time winners of the Southland junior college crown since 1926.

Tackling Is Barred

Tackling will be barred probably throughout tomorrow's joint workout, which has been arranged mainly to give both clubs an opportunity to test the few ground and aerial plays handed out the past week.

Don Kennedy, 16-year-old champion of Southern California amateur golf, is the latest recruit to come under Foote's wing. Young Kennedy's grid experience has been limited to competition at Julia Lathrop Junior High school, but he is built like an end, standing 6 ft. 1 in. and weighing around 150.

Coaches Cook and Al Reboin enlisted five new prospects at the junior college—Ray Devine, six-foot tackle and brother of "Brix" Devine of the Don champs of '33; Dick Shepard, end and tackle reserve from '34; John Haskell, tall Tustin boy; Louis Siracusa, Huntington Beach graduate and brother of Dante Siracusa of Santa Ana's 1932 club, and John Forsyth, a sawed-off center with three years of prep experience at Imperial, Neb.

Joe Herbert Impresses

"As cool as a cucumber." That's how Cook sizes up his new quarterback "find." Joe Herbert from Fullerton High school's 1932 and '33 elevens. Herbert has made a deep impression on the strength of his punting and general football sense.

Cook and Reboin divided their squad into three teams, and paced them through running plays yesterday. One backfield combination had Oliver McCarter, all-county league selection, at quarter; Frank (Red) McMichael, all-county league guard, at inside half; John Lehnhardt, tall and brilliant blocker from Garden Grove, at outside half, and Letterman Dick Moore at fullback.

Other backfield combinations included Walt Hickman, Eastern all-conference fullback; Frank Ochoa, Anaheim quarterback, and a host of newcomers.

De Forest Fee to End

Tackle DeForest Fee, Anaheim giant, may be revamped into an end. Cook had him at the right wing yesterday, with George Snokelburg, Wichita boy, holding down left end. In another combination were Bill Grieschner and Bob Holmes.

Roy Renwick of Santa Barbara Named S. A. Pro

Roy Renwick, from the La Cumbre course of Santa Barbara, will become golf professional at the Santa Ana Country club Oct. 1.

Renwick, whose appointment was made in a board of directors meeting at the club last night, was one of more than a dozen applicants for the job.

Prior to his affiliation at La Cumbre, Renwick served as a pro in Portland. He replaces Joe Hunter, who resigned here June 1.

Rose Bowl Vets and 'Soph' Sensation Make Everything Rosy for Thornhill

THREE LOCAL NETTERS IN TOURNNEY

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12. Football champion in its own far western sector the last two seasons but a disappointing factor in New Year's day intersectional competition, Stanford university, will seek coast and national honors in the forthcoming campaign with practically the same team as before.

The sophomore stars of 1933, who formed the nucleus of the team which brought Stanford its first Pacific Coast conference title in several seasons, are available for their third year of varsity service.

Experienced reserves of the 1934 campaign and several brilliant recruits up from the freshman team will be available to plug holes opened by graduation.

The outlook pleases C. E. (Tiny) Thornhill, smiling giant who produced championship elevens in his first two seasons as head coach.

"Not many changes this season," says Thornhill. "We'll miss Claude Callaway at tackle. The backfield should be stronger and more versatile. This boy Bill Paulman from last year's freshmen looks like the goods to me. He throws strikes with the football and should be the best punter we've had in a long while."

"I think our seniors will hold up. There are no swell heads in this gang. They really like to play the game and past performances don't make any difference."

"The two-wing back formation still looks the best to me. We'll throw plenty of passes and this season there is more reason to believe they will connect. Alabama passed us right out of the Pasadena Rose Bowl last New Year's day and we hope to have similar offensive tactics in the bag this fall. I think our running game will be as strong as any team's in the country. You might add I still haven't found any good reason why Columbia beat us in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1, 1934."

Grayson Is Spearhead Again

The tremendous ground-gaining power that has been Stanford's the last two seasons will again center around all-America fullback Bobby Grayson. Bob Hamilton, "iron man" of the backfield, will be switched from right to left half, and Frank Alustiza will be moved from quarterback to right half. This will make room for last year's freshman sensation, Paulman, and if the latter holds up his share of the burden at the master-minding station, Coach Thornhill believes his "behind-the-line" worries will be over.

The forward wall includes such veterans as Bob Reynolds, all-America tackle, and James (Monk) Moscrip, the end who won national acclaim, in addition to experienced men in all positions except right tackle.

THESE SEALS CAN PITCH

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12. (P)—San Francisco's pitching staff continued to lead the way in the Pacific Coast standings today with three of its star hurlers holding down the first three places. Sam Gibson was out in front with an imposing record of 20 triumphs against 4 defeats. Wyn Ballou, with a record of 18 and 6; Roy Joiner has 12 wins and 5 losses. Mike Meala of Los Angeles was the closest rival with 18 victories and 8 reverses.

ALLISON WINS NET HONORS FROM WOOD

Texas Veteran Annexes U. S. Title With 6-2, 6-2, 6-3 Victory

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 12. (P)—Wilmer Allison, 31-year-old veteran from Austin, Tex., became the United States singles tennis champion today when he defeated Sidney B. Wood, Jr., of New York decisively in three sets, 6-2, 6-2, 6-3, in a match that lasted a shade under 50 minutes.

Helen Jacobs' fourth successive annexation of the women's championship was an anti-climax to Allison's startling upset over Fred Perry of England, 7-5, 6-3, 6-3, yesterday.

The Berkeley woman vanquished her victim of last year's final, Mrs. Palfrey Fabyan of Brookline, Mass., in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4.

Mrs. Fabyan found it virtually impossible to handle her conqueror's high-kicking chop shots. Miss Jacobs won without a great deal of effort, but her title defense was not the best showing she made in the Forest Hills tourney.

Star Dust

"Santa Ana has the better ball club," remarked Budgie, manager of Colton's champions of the American league, after the Star-Oiler tussle which he and his players, including Pitcher Venn Botts, saw here last night. He singled out Jimmy Bates, the individual star of the game. Finlay said his post-season series with the Griffin college team, completed the Los Angeles baseball talent of the Pacific Coast league, had fallen through because the Griffins wanted the bulk of the gate receipts.

First baseman Bob Smith of the Oilers pulled a bone in the second inning almost gave the Stars a run. Merle Urbine was on first with one away. Al Reboin grounded to Pitcher Neva, who tossed him out while Urbine dashed for second. Thinking the side was retired, Smith tossed the ball in the direction of Umpire "Shorty" Smith, and Urbine scampered to third as the surprised Oiler hurriedly retrieved the ball.

George Murray, Huntington Beach's leftfielder, howled vigorously at Umpire Max Ellison in the fourth, and was almost ordered from the game. Murray and several of his teammates thought Ellison missed some of Coates' low pitches which he called strikes. Santa Ana also figured in a few arguments with officials. The visiting Colton players, in a huddle after the game, criticized the play-off rivals for "crabbing" so much at decisions.

Manager Tom Denney looked like the Denney of old, with four singles in as many trials. His last hit, a bouncer to short, was questionable, although press row thought Shortstop Joe Rodgers would have been unable to make a play even if he had not juggled the ball.

Leavitt Daley, wisely stationed deep in rightfield, robbed Bob Smith of the Oilers of a possible homer in the fifth. Daley plays up close for most batters. Catcher Al Reboin made a beautiful play in tossing out Bill McKinley on a bunt in the same inning.

Paul Neva is a brave lad. He caught most of offerings of Brother Louie without a mask.

The temperature of the sun near its surface is about 6,000 centigrade degrees.

Ebony Club Sends Five Strong Invaders to Meet County Lads

Peaked by a sextette of potent light-heavyweight punchers, a boxing card featuring five furious boys from the Los Angeles Ebony club is on tap for the Orange County Athletic club arena tonight. Frankie Herrera, the Jimmy Braddock of amateur boxing, meets Sailor Jack Hipps of the U.S.S. Pensacola in the top spot.

Herrera is the grim young lad with husky arms who went in as a recent substitute for Bud Holzhauser and punched out a decision over Fullerton's fading Lupe Le Mon. No one had ever heard of Herrera, a Los Alamitos lad, until he hoisted himself into prominence in his bout and then followed through by licking Tiger Jack Woods in another top battle here.

Hipps Is Favored

Hipps has won and lost with Le Mon but most ringers agree that he is a better puncher than the Fullerton fighter. Since both boys are faster than Le Mon a good bout is probable with Hipps favored because of his smoother style. Herrera, however, is the consistent plodder type—like Braddock—and may surprise.

A good water-front brawl is in line for the semi-final which brings together Chet Smith, Wilmington toughy, and Sailor Dye, a shipmate of Hipps', at 180 pounds. A third stanza of light-heavyweights is carded for the special event which lists Chief Wanetches, Herrera's fellow townsman, meeting Eddie Chapman, head man of the group of five invaders from the Ebony club.

Santa Ana's Billed

Sailor Bowen, another Pensacola tar, takes on Johnny Anderson of the Ebony club in the fifth bout at 140 pounds, while Santa Ana's Schoolboy Paul Brown meets Eddie Jackson of the Ebony club at 135 pounds.

Los Alamitos sends Kid Pacho, 138, to meet Jimmy Johnson of the Ebony club in the third bout.

MINORITY BLOCKS WATER DISTRICT'S VOTE ON BOND SUPPORT

EXPLANATION
TAX GIVEN

Because of the 35 per cent increased assessed values on property ordered this year by the state board of equalization, taxes will be slightly higher this year than they were for 1934. According to a table prepared by County Assessor James Sleeper, the average increase on property valued last year at $1000 will be $5.

Mr. Sleeper prepared a table outlining the rates for Santa Ana, Fullerton and Laguna Beach, the three cities for which the county collects taxes. In Santa Ana the increase will be $5.03 on real estate and $4.58 on improvements and personal property. The raise in Fullerton will be $5.02, but in Laguna Beach the increase will amount to $11.78.

In estimating the increase, Mr. Sleeper took as his base a piece of property assessed in 1934 at $1000. Following the raise in rates of assessed values by the state board of equalization, the same property this year was assessed at $1350.

Increase Explained
In 1934 the tax on improvements and personal property assessed at $1000 was $53.20. Real estate assessed at $1000 was taxed $56.80. The difference between the taxes and the 36-cent rate levied against real estate for Santa Ana boulevard.

This year the tax on the same improvements and personal property will be $57.78 and the real estate tax will total $61.83.

In Fullerton, property assessed at $1000 last year paid $47.90. This year the tax against the same property will be $52.92. Property valued at $100 last year in Laguna Beach paid a tax of $51.80, and the same property will pay $63.58 this year.

Following are tables prepared by Mr. Sleeper showing the tax rates for Santa Ana, Fullerton and Laguna Beach and the purposes for which the rate was set.

Plunge and Ball Diamond
Are Features Developed
By Orange for Its Park

(This is the second of a series of articles having to do with the development of Orange's system of parks, potential beauty spots and recreational institutions of Southern California. The series is intended to be informative to those cities which do not enjoy park facilities. Santa Ana is listed in the latter classification.)

By ROCH BRADSHAW
The Orange city park, which is a rather barren, rough region in the Santiago creek, is developing rapidly into a recreational and beauty spot in which the community can justly take considerable pride.

In fact practically everything already is there to make a park in which the residents of Orange, both young and old, can find features to make life more worth living. Rain and sunshine, time and careful attention will bring out the shrubs, trees and flowers to give the park facilities a colorful setting.

Planning Plunge
One of the major attractions of the park is to be its plunge. The pool itself was excavated and cemented as a Civil Works administration project. Around three sides is a tile-topped wall, in which grilles openings at intervals will give spectators a chance to watch the swimmers. It is expected that the plunge will be thrown open next summer as a popular spot for Orange residents to cool off.

Across the creek from the plunge is the softball diamond which has been created as part of the park. Bleachers have been erected, seating 400 to 500 persons, and lights have been installed for night games. During the past season and the one before, Orange softball teams and fans kept the field busy. The diamond is reached by crossing the creek bed on rustic bridges.

Two Tennis Courts
Two concrete tennis courts, fenced for the convenience of players, have been erected west of the plunge. Nearby are three courts which can be used for tennis or croquet. The former game seems to be gaining popularity, and women now take an active interest in the sport.

A clubhouse beside these courts is available for checker, domino and card games. It will prove especially acceptable in rainy weather.

For picnickers the city has provided sheltered stoves, so that facilities are available for cooking those picnic dinners that give variety to both summer and winter months.

2 DIRECTORS
OPPOSED TO PROJECT

Tustin Engineer Wants
No Guarantees Made
to Water Companies

Minority opposition yesterday prevented five directors of the Orange county water district from voting on a resolution to endorse the county water conservation program and the bond issue proposed to help finance it. Two directors openly opposed the resolution. While the three others present apparently favored it, they refused to risk a vote on the question. Two members were absent.

The board will hold an adjourned session next Wednesday at Garden Grove to act on the resolution. Every effort will be made to have the entire board present.

Irvine Engineer Opposed
Roy Browning, Tustin, engineer for the Irvine company, said he will oppose the bond issue as long as there is any intimation that the county will guarantee the two major water companies that their present summer flow of water in the Santa Ana river will be maintained. Mr. Browning wants it definitely understood that the county is not guaranteeing this flow. Otherwise, he said, he fears the water companies might sue the county in case the summer flow is not maintained.

The resolution of endorsement was offered yesterday by W. C. Mauerhan, Katella. Mr. Browning immediately opposed it. His position was seconded by William Wallop, Anaheim, superintendent of the Anaheim Union Water company.

On all sides of her were the matrons and patrons of 1932, the year when she had held the matron's post in Santa Ana chapter. Job's Daughters of which she is guardian in Santa Ana were there en masse, and scores of former friends and fellow officers paid her homage from their seats in the audience.

The escort of Minnie Viola Collins, worthy matron of the state of California, followed.

Clarence Gustin Plays

L. A. CHENOWETHS ENTERTAINING GUESTS IN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Chenoweth have been busy playing hosts to a group of relatives and friends this past week at their home, 2511 North Park boulevard.

Early in the week Mrs. Chenoweth's nephew, Stuart Fletcher, who has just completed his studies at Annapolis and is stationed on the cruiser "San Francisco" at Long Beach, brought a group of his fellow ensigns to the Chenoweth home for an overnight stay.

The guests were Ensigns John Barlow, Turner Caldwell, and Richard Lynch, and Seth Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher, San Francisco, are spending a week or two in the Santa Ana home. Mrs. Fletcher, a sister of Mrs. Chenoweth, is better known in literary circles as Inglis Fletcher, and she and her husband are including in their Southernland activities a two-day visit with the writer, Jane Murfin, in Hollywood.

Mrs. Maurice Clark, San Francisco, mother of Mrs. Chenoweth, came south with the Fletchers and is to remain for an indefinite visit in Santa Ana.

The hostess' mother and niece assisted in the serving duties.

In contract, high score awards went to Miss Ruth Rowland, who received a green pottery pitcher; to Mrs. Dora Lutz, who was given an amusing shell bird, and to Miss Zena Leck, whose prize was a serving tray.

The Thinkers
Wherein women of the community express their views on topics of particular interest to women.

What do you think about an allowance for children?

Mrs. A. W. Ranum: I give my 9-year-old daughter an allowance each Tuesday and Friday. The amount gradually increases from year to year. She often banks the money, but I don't insist on her doing so. I think giving children an allowance encourages a sense of responsibility in them and makes them more willing to do the things they should.

Mrs. Lucy Preble: When my children were very young, they received allowances, but when they were older and needed things, they were required to earn them. I think it makes for character in young people when they earn for themselves.

Mrs. W. F. Rurup: I think it's a good idea to give children a definite allowance. It teaches them the value of money and gives them the idea of budgeting it over a certain period of time.

Mary Stoddard It's the Girls Who Are Responsible For Men Losing Ideals and Romance

During the past few weeks several letters presenting interesting human problems have appeared in these columns. One that has drawn much comment was that from a middle-aged business man who signed himself "John" and asking just how far a man's duty goes in marriage?

Another letter which is creating much interest among our readers is that signed "Eldra"—21, a girl who feels quite sure that all of the worth-while men must be married and the crop of bachelors in our midst are insolent morons.

Comment on these subjects and others follow:

Dear Miss Stoddard: With your permission I will say a few words to Eldra—21.

If you are looking for a man (a boy) the type of 20 years ago, which perhaps your mother has told about, you will no doubt have as hard a time finding one as I have of locating a girl in the fashion of years past.

Girls Like Them Gay
There are of course boys who are of the class or type you wish to get in touch with, but they are few. You can take it from me, I am a good many years your senior.

And why are they so few? The answer is: The girls nowadays, or most of them, call the once-admired gentlemanly type of man a "sissy" and a "bore." In other words, he is a sap, a fool, and as they call it—doesn't know the ropes.

The modern girl, through her economic independence and political freedom has speeded up and wants a man who has a lot of pep and is willing to show it. The fast-worker, whether he is sincere or not, holds the center of the stage. A man of this type always has a lot of dates at his disposal. Of course, he must have a car! If not, he is out.

Love Romance
The calm soul, timid and perhaps a little bashful, gets it in his head that he is not wanted, gets disgusted with perhaps what little romance he might have had, and wanders about dreaming and thinking that some day he might know some fine girl of his own type. But as the years go by he gets older and older and before he knows it, nobody wants him because of his age. And the same things hold true also of the girls, sorry to say.

I know quite a few single girls and women, but I know of no one I would care or dare to marry.

Perhaps I am too brutally frank, but I despise women who will attend any old dance, drink, smoke and what have you, and what a lot of gold-diggers there are.

You know some fine girl of his being bold and whatnot, but with most of the women I meet there seems to be only one thing that counts and that is money, money.

Now please don't write back and say I am mistaken or that I am old and crab. This is all true and I am willing to prove it. I know there are good women and good men, but just try to find them. I know I have failed. Trust you will have better luck. STARK.

spent in playing bridge. Mrs. Lois Lighthall and Miss Vera Williams won prizes.

YEAR'S ACTIVITIES SET IN MOTION BY LATHROP P. T. A.

Plans for activities of the Julia Lathrop Junior High school Parent-Teacher association took actual form when Sept. 20 was set as the date for the first dinner meeting to be held in the school cafeteria at 6:30 o'clock at an executive board meeting held yesterday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. R. G. Bond, 1321 South Van Ness street.

'The Dark Angel' Is At Broadway

"The Dark Angel" called one of the classic pictures of the year, starring Frederic March, Merle Oberon and Herbert Marshall, and "Atlantic Adventure," featuring Nancy Carroll, come to the Broadway theater today for a three-day engagement.

The story of "The Dark Angel" is laid in rural England. It concerns the life of a girl who falls in love with a man who pays little attention to her but who, herself, is adored by another man. War comes to England and the man she loves suddenly realizes his love for her. He rushes to her, their wedding is planned and then suddenly he is called back to the trenches. Later she hears he is killed. But this is not the end of the story. Its ending is happy.

"Atlantic Adventure" tells the story of murder. It is a mystery embracing a missing heiress, a newspaper reporter and a district attorney. Many things happen on board a big ocean liner, but by the time it docks the mystery is solved.

DEATH LIST

LAWRENCE of Arabia; Frau Schuschnigg, wife of Austria's chancellor; Prince Alex Mdivani, Barbara Hutton's former husband;

Queen Astrid of Belgium; The son and daughter of Bernard Wills, multi-millionaire British tobacco king;

Mrs. Harold L. Ickes, wife of secretary of the interior. Suppose we read these well known names in a list of passengers lost on a neutral transatlantic liner, sunk by a belligerent. An emotional reaction, comparable with the shock of the Lusitania disaster, would follow. But they are not victims of a submarine. They are recent victims of something just as deadly—the kind of motoring we moderns indulge in.

The list shows that this threat of sudden death is not confined to the United States; it is worldwide.

The danger of world war is potential; the traffic danger is actual. Every day it cuts off valuable lives, both of the humble and the illustrious; it breaks up happy homes, whether in cottages or palaces.

To end it we must learn and teach safety rules and arrest reckless drivers. But we must do something harder. We must reduce our average rate of speed. Studies show that as the average rate of speed goes up accidents increase. The perils that always lie in carelessness are multiplied by speed. Here is a fact that a speed-crazy age must face, though it does not want to.

Let us deny ourselves the momentary thrill of speed, the imaginary need for haste, the nervous impatience, so we may live in a world in which there is a greater measure of security for life and limb and peace of mind.

CASH REGISTER MARRIAGE

SANTA ANA is to have a new marriage chapel—a mill where cooing couples may be spliced at so much per head with all the blessings of a justice of the peace or a minister of the gospel entwined with orange blossoms; organ music and an obligato of "Oh, Promise Me" included in a one-stop service.

For those who do not care for church or parsonage weddings, ceremonies performed in a justice of the peace office or superior court chambers, this will afford a welcome relief. No longer will it be necessary to marry anybody off at a walkathon, in an airplane or in the public square.

Service should be provided so couples might walk right in, take a ticket as one would at a barber shop, get a shoeshine and engage a lawyer for the first divorce, while they wait for the couple ahead to get their change at the cash register. Better still would be a self-service device where couples could press a button, get the desired music and marriage service, and repeat their vows to a robot.

To make the accommodations complete book salesmen should be stationed near by with copies of Eugene O'Neill's "Strange Interlude" and Aimee Semple McPherson's "How to Disappear and Get Away With It."

We've been listening intently, but have not yet heard Gov. Merriam shush those enthusiastic friends down South who want to run him for President.

BE AS FAIR AS THE BOARD

THERE is one thing about bond elections which always is beneficial to a community, much as at budget-making time. Bond issues make us think. They force us to analyze financial statements, to take stock of what we have, and to know, before we spend, whether we can pay.

A gratifying feature of the Santa Ana board of education's financial statement is the showing that our bonded indebtedness, should the proposed $180,000 issue carry at the election two weeks from today, will be only 2.72 of the 5 per cent allowed by law. That, we believe, is conservative. It should give us confidence in the personnel of the board. There has been careful management and sometimes little thanks.

Probably no public undertaking in a community is so fraught with hard work and unjust criticism as is the agenda of the average school board. The board we have now has given the school building issue the utmost in careful deliberation. Before we make up our minds one way or the other it is our duty to get the board's point of view; to see the picture through their eyes. Then we have a right to dissent if we choose.

Baer will keep his chin protected in his fight with Louis, we read. We don't care what Baer does with his chin in the ring. It's what he does with it outside that annoys us.

PLEA FOR CHILDREN

BEFORE the league of nations assembly, a spokesman for Ethiopia states that country's case in brief:

"Ethiopia refuses to submit its people to a Fascist regime which brings up children in love of war and hate of neighbors."

That is an indictment that Italy will have a hard time explaining away. Certainly, it cannot be denied that Fascism does exactly what the Ethiopian spokesman says it does—and glories in it.

It is hardly probable that the Italian people—a warm-hearted, hard-working race—desire to bring up their children to hate everyone. In fact, in spite of Mussolini's most frenzied efforts, the Italian birth rate continues to go down, indicating a lack of enthusiasm for the Fascist project to provide plenty of cannon-fodder for wars of conquest against inoffensive people.

Italy may win Ethiopia—but she has lost the respect of the world.

Whimsies of O. O. McIntyre

Out on Queens boulevard near Forest Hills there has sprung up something entirely new in depression entertainment.

The effect is a Southern plantation, crude and country, bearing the name of "De South." It's lit by oil torches and lanterns hung from whiffle-trees.

Admission is free, a plate dinner 50 cents and tin cups of beer are dispensed from a corn-crib bar. Off-side is a scrubby corral with an old nag roaming around. The entrance is over an old-fashioned four-step stile and benches and tables are scattered picnic style.

The orchestra pit is a dug-out in a mystic where black musicians in overalls and straw hats play kazooes. The only other instrument is a guitar. The waitresses are garbed in pickaninny dress. A couple may dance all evening for a dollar and the floor is well filled.

The whole enterprise is quartered on a long abandoned lot and probably represents an investment of not more than $100. Yet from the opening it has proved a winner. The immense free parking space is filled with limousines of Long Islanders stopping for a bit of slumming.

No poet in the world lives so luxuriously as D'Annunzio. His villa on the picturesque mountain-side at Lake Garda Italy, is one of the most magnificent in Europe. There is a pretentious entrance, like a refined gateway to Luna park. On the highest peak is a war ship, a relic of his gallant days in Flume. He has two planes, five cars, 15 dogs and an army of servants that fairly tumble over each other. All at the expense of the Italian government.

Robert Sherwood, the playwright, is reputedly among the most welcome American visitors to Vienna. His sympathetic play, "Reunion in Vienna," contributed largely to his popularity. A correspondent, visiting there, writes: "My first visit since 1923 and what a change. No one smiles. They just keep hoping. On the anniversary of the Dolfuss assassination the whole town paused in mournful silence. Everything was dark save for the two candles that flickered in every available window. It's the most lasting personal sorrow I ever beheld."

Last of the Viennese boulevardiers is the writer, Ferenc Molnar. Every afternoon at 3 he sits at his favorite cafe table sipping his favorite tipple—a light period faintly hued with grenadine. His foot-long, carved ivory cigarette holder, juts upward at the Joe Cannon angle. And the only bright relief in his rather dark expression is his shining monocle.

Incidentally, I have a feeling I had the nearest close-up I shall ever attain of an 18-karat cosmopolitan in a Waldorf foyer the other day. He stepped from an elevator, a be-spattered, gardenia-scented symphony in two-toned gray with a Ben Ali Haggin tuxel to his slight mustache. A charmingly flirty Billie Burke type on a divan rose expectantly exclaiming, "My dear Baron, you are late!" He murmured some polite nothing, touched her fingers lightly to his lips and, as casually as one might shoot a cuff, dropped a monocle from his eye smack into his vest pocket without touching it! Then he gave her his arm and together they marched toward a dining room.

Then there's Grove Patterson's mad ambition to walk behind a monocled across a mosaic floor slyly dropping watch crystals at intervals.

Thingamabobs: Lowell Thomas who a school teacher in Colorado before he wrote a book about Lawrence of Arabia and became famous... Oscar of the Waldorf never smoked until past 60... Lamar, Mo., is agitating a Ted Cook avenue to honor the humorist who has made the town famous... A valet on the Prince of Wales royal staff is named Nipuck... Ben Ames Williams is another author who avoids New York save on most pressing business... Chic Sale in only two years of authoring on the side netted $125,000.

Leon Gordon stopped in a cafeteria near his studio for a buckety-buckitty bite the other noon. His coffee had too much cream and he asked for a stronger cup. When it was set down, the waiter archly inquired: "It that too less?"

MARRIED AT POLICE STATION

ASHEVILLE, N. C., (AP)—J. T. Burnett, 25, and Miss Lottie Miller, 25, wanted to get married, so they went to the police station. Sergeant W. E. Rector telephoned George Digges, register of deeds, who had retired for the night, and arranged for a license. Other policemen served as witnesses. When the ceremony was finished the officers showered the couple with rice obtained at a nearby restaurant.

EVERYDAY MOVIES

"You tell the teacher I said she's wrong."

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—One important criticism is being hammered home on the President by his advisers these days until it has become almost an anvil chorus.

These critics urge the absolute and immediate necessity of administrative efficiency, of curtailing the cumbersome machine of government, which has grown to such giant proportions.

Rex Tugwell, who is trying to drop 8,000 of his resettlement workers, has urged this on the President. So has Harry Hopkins, who is now curtailing his surplus FEERA workers.

Even Mrs. Roosevelt has emphasized this point to her husband. On one occasion, after Barney Baruch had impressed her with the dangers of New Deal inefficiency, she arranged a conference between Baruch and Roosevelt, even went to the extent of having both men in for tea, and kept all calls or messages away from the President while they talked.

As a result there has been some attempt at increased efficiency and curtailing the elephantine New Deal—but not much.

There are two reasons for failure. One is the obvious fact that no other administration in history has launched so radical and multiple a program.

The other is that Roosevelt, himself, cannot let go the personal reins. This is partly because he doesn't want to, partly because there are so many weak spots and prima donnas in his cabinet.

The number of administrative details which flow across the President's desk is amazing. Coolidge had nothing like it. Even Hoover, whose eight years in the department of commerce gave him such an intimate knowledge of government that he was more familiar with many details than his subordinates, would not have dreamed of tackling the minor matters which come up to Roosevelt.

Until this changes, the anvil chorus around Roosevelt will be about as effective as rain-prayers in the northwest drought-land.

GANG INFORMER

IT IS AGAINST justice department policy to admit it, but the tip which sent G-men directly to the shallow grave of gangster John Hamilton two weeks ago came from a woman.

ELLIOTT ROOSEVELT

BEHIND the Texas squabble over Elliott Roosevelt, second son of the President, was a neat plan to run him for congress in 1936.

The idea was sponsored chiefly by Amon Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, intimate friend of the Roosevelt family. He wanted Elliott to oppose Fritz Lanham, congressman from Ft. Worth, and to that end boosted him first for the presidency of the Young Democrats of Texas.

However, Elliott did not go over very well in the Lone Star state. He was too good-looking, his manner too suave, his attitude just a trifle superior. Also, friends of Fritz Lanham set out to knife him. So after a knock-down and

YE DIARY

Up in great haste, and to dashing for the morning petrol stage, a piece of toast in one hand and my necktie in the other, and do catch the bus, heaven help me, by making a great leap to the running board, as the craft do pull out from the depot, and so, mighty winded, to town.

Let go the mooring line!

Remarkable Remarks

The surest way to involve America in war is to let the rest of the world know we will not fight under any circumstances.—Senator Tom Connally, Texas.

The New Deal record is one of squandered money, blundering and powerlessness, and is the greatest failure in American history.—Representative Hamilton Fish, New York.

Had this policy been in worldwide effect in 1776, it is doubtful if the 13 colonies would have achieved their independence.—Representative J. W. Wadsworth, New York, referring to arms embargo provision of neutrality bill.

The rules that governed an employee in a blacksmith shop in the days of Washington cannot of necessity govern the relationship between the 50,000 employees of a great corporation and the infinitely complex and diffused ownership of the corporation.—President Roosevelt.

What Other Editors Think

AFTER MORE WATER

(Redlands Facts)

The proposition of San Bernardino Valley Water Conservation district to construct a check dam at what is known as Filerea Flats, on upper Santa Ana river canyon, is not something born of the moment or new in conservation history of the stream. The plan has been grown out of many years of study and was one of the early suggestions of state engineers.

This fact is established in one of the more recent reports of the division of water resources of the plan for flood control and conservation of waste water of the Santa Ana river. In a bulletin published in 1930 the engineers assert that a reservoir is desirable in the canyon to improve the efficiency of the spreading works, that it would check flush floods, desilt the stream, remove debris, and thus make available clear water for spreading on the sands below in flood time. Uppermost, of course, is the saving of water from wastefulness of state engineers.

TWO HURRICANES

(Christian Science Monitor)

In Florida today everything possible is being done to repair the ravages of a hurricane. Rescue and relief have exhibited humanity at its best. Courage, loyalty, generosity, intelligence and energy are poured out without stint to ease the suffering and repair the damage wrought by wind and wave. Present estimates are 500 fatalities and several million dollars' worth of property destroyed. In Florida no human effort is being spread to lessen the destructiveness of natural forces.

In Africa today everything possible is being done to enhance the destructiveness of a premeditated hurricane. Preparations for more efficient mass murder disclose humanity at its worst. Courage, loyalty, generosity, intelligence and energy are poured out without stint to increase the potential suffering and damage wrought by war. Present estimates are 5000 to 50,000 fatalities (if the hurricane hits only Ethiopia) and hundreds of millions of dollars. In Africa no human effort is being spared to augment man-made forces of death and destruction.

SKINNY SKRIBBLES

Around and About Town

With C. F. SKIRVIN

Fellow comes in and lays down an architect's drawing and says this is the new school if we get it. They are to have an auditorium and classroom building, domestic arts and music building, shop building, commercial classrooms building, cafeteria building, girls' social unit, gymnasium building, boiler plant and teachers and swimming pool. That's a long distance from the three r's when I went to school, but the pupils have also gone a long distance in educational preparation since the teacher used to slap a ruler across the palm of his hand.

Looked like a response to a "Cat to Arms." Ernie Winbiger going down the street with a rifle over his shoulder. No indication as to whether he was going to take the side of Mussolini or Ethiopia. Then again the deer season is on in California, and maybe he hasn't any intentions beyond the state border. I rather think the latter conclusion is correct. And again maybe Ernie is after business.

Bill Hagethorn is home from a mountain retreat where he tried to get some rest. Vacations do not always yield the joy that is anticipated, and Bill was the uncomfortable exception. He took with him the regulation pedals, both working perfectly when he left Santa Ana. Might have been the altitude.
